fitted out with an office area as well as a bedroom. The current owners converted two bedrooms into one magnificent master suite, which could be easily converted back to the original layout to provide a fourth bedroom if desired. The property is immaculately presented throughout, in a modern style with some furnishings included.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire one of the best penthouses close to La Cala de Mijas, which is just a short walk to the beach and has a good range of restaurants, bars, supermarkets, and transport facilities within a 3-minute flat walk. The property also boasts a private underground garage space for two cars and a large storeroom, which are included in the price. This is one property that is definitely not to be missed!

Our team of property coordinators are happy to answer any questions you have, any time of the day. ENQUIRE NOW!
